MCCANN DOUBLE AMARYLLIS - Introduced By LAKEMONT GARDENS Last Year - This superb Amaryllis novelty was an immediate success and the stock was sold low on all blooming sizes of the bulbs. Hence we have been advised that an increase in price has been necessary this season: MCCANN DOUBLE AMARYLLIS, assorted types, $2.00 ea., $5.00 for three. (We recommend a minimum of three bulbs to give an idea of the range of the doubles.) NAMED VARIETIES: HELEN HULL, orange red with light markings, $3.00; New McCann Varieties offered this season for the first time: MADIRA BICKEL, CAPT. MCCANN, EDENA and MARY MCCANN, all offered at $5.00 per bulb, best blooming size. These are the latest novelties in American Amaryllis.

HOWARD & SMITH AMARYLLIS: - We believe the Howard and Smith Amaryllis strain is the best in flower form and color shades, of any Amaryllis raised in America today. Grown under irrigation in California, from greenhouse-raised selected seed stock, the parent bulbs introduced from fine European collections by the late Fred Howard, famous California hybridizer many years ago. This season we offer a minimum of three bulbs, to give a reasonable idea of the general qualities of the strain; - Three bulbs, blooming size 2½ to 3 inches in diameter, $2.25; $7.50 per doz.

CALIFORNIA STRAIN: this is another good florists strain of hybrid Amaryllis, seldom offered retail, but intended for pot plant use, 50¢ ea., $5.00 per doz.

Hayward Strain of Hybrid Amaryllis sold out for this season.

SPECIAL OFFER WARMEHOVEN AMARYLLIS: As a result of the excellent showing by Warmenhoven & Zonen named varieties of Hybrid Amaryllis at the Amaryllis Trials conducted by the Garden Center of Greater Cleveland (Ohio) last season which will continue two more years, we rejoice at the opportunity to offer the American Amaryllis-loving public the first authentic imported bulbs of the Warmenhoven Strain sold under their correct name of origin in the United States. Warmenhoven is one of the great names in Holland Amaryllis. Ask any Dutch bulb expert. A special importation of top size bulbs will be available: PURE WHITES: - Queen of the Whites, this bulb received a Double AA rating at the Cleveland Trials for pure white Amaryllis, the only variety so honored. Special introductory price $6.00. Other Warmenhoven pure whites, MT. TACOMA and JOAN OF ARC, $5.00 each. Limited stock of these. WARMEHOVEN COLLECTION: special collection of named varieties, five bulbs, including one pure white, "Queen of the Whites" as long as available, and four other varieties, from such outstanding types as SWEET SEVENTEEN, pink, SCARLET BEAUTY, LUCIFER, KING OF THE STRIPES, QUEEN'S PAGE and ORANGE FAVORITE. The five bulbs for $20.00. Limited supply imported, early ordering suggested.

LUDWIG COLLECTIONS: - Five pure white varieties, our selection, $20.00. Five shades of Red, named varieties, $20.00. Five Salmon and Orange, named varieties, $20.00. Five Ludwig named varieties, assorted, our selection, $18.00.

DUTCH IRIS: -- We still have some stock left of WEDGEWOOD, YELLOW QUEEN, WHITE EXCELSIOR, and VAN VLIET (deep blue) varieties of Dutch Iris bulbs for outdoor planting in the South. Imported from Holland for our customers, they have met a popular demand for this desirable spring-flowering bulb: Special low prices, 25 bulbs $1.00, 100 for $3.00. Millions of Dutch Iris are forced annually by florists for winter and spring cut flowers.

Earliest possible planting recommended before January 1st.

ANEMONES (Anemone Coronaria) We have a few more bulbs of the genuine Van Tubergen (De Caen) strain of Poppy Anemones for the showiest of bowl flowers, and grown in cool weather North and South, 25¢ per doz., $1.00 for 5 doz. Plant the little roots point down and 2 inches deep in loamy soil.

GERBERA DAISY PLANTS: we offer the Hersey strain of duplex single Gerbera daisy plants, which we believe are the finest available; $3.50 doz. mixed colors; Howard & Smith double Gerbera plants, $7.50 doz. separate colors, $10.00 doz.

HAEMANTHUS MULTIFLORUS, the gorgeous African Blood Lily, with large, scarlet, globular umbels in May, up to a foot in diameter, $3.00, $5.00 and $10.00 per bulb, according to size. $5.00 size is medium blooming size.

GLORIOSA LILIES -- the spectacular and ever-more-popular climbing glory lilies, one of our specialties: Gloriosa Rothschildiana, large scarlet-yellow, 75¢, $1.00 and $1.50 each for blooming size tubers. Smaller sizes 35¢ and 50¢ each, planting stock near blooming size, some may bloom.

GLORIOSA SUPERBA, the old-fashioned orange red and yellow type, taller and more vining, crisped flowers, 35¢, 50¢ and $1.00 per tuber, according to size.

GLORIOSA PLANTII, the delightful dwarf orange and yellow flowered species, about two to three feet tall, lovely novelty, $1.00 and $2.00 per tuber. GLORIOSA CARSONI, citron-yellow and claret flowers, latest variety, $10.00 each. G. SUPERBA VAR. LUTEA, a form opening up clear yellow flowers which later turn deep orange-red, $10.00 ea. CURCUMA LILIES: showy tropical "ginger" foliage plants from India and the Far East Indies, gorgeous for foliage effects, exotic bloom spikes with pink, rose and orange colored bracts. This is a coming novelty and possibly exclusive with us: CURCUMA ZEDPARIA, fine yellow-green foliage with chocolate stripe down center of leaves, cones of lavender-rose bracts; blooms in early spring from established plants, half hardy in lower South, 50¢ and $1.00 each for rhizomes. CURCUMA PETIOLATA, found here and there in Southern gardens, fine plaited light green leaves, cones of dainty rose-pink bracts emerge from leafy stem in mid-summer, $1.00 & $2.00 each. Half hardy over lower South. CURCUMA "GIGANTEA", a large tall-growing variety from India, unidentified, $1.00 & $2.00 each.

KAEMPFERIA ROTUNDA, one of a group of astonishing and beautiful dwarf plants of the "ginger lily" tribe, with exotic flowers which appear day after day in season. Foliage is something like a maranta, dark green and purple on reverse. Striking and unusual, $1.00 & $2.00 according to size. Short supply, we have never had enough of this item. We have four other species all rare and choice: K. GALANGI, K. GILBERTI, K. PARISHII and K. ATROVIRENS. Small tubers of any of these for experimenters, $5.00 each. GALANGI and ATRO-VIRENS are particularly attractive and remarkable.

ACHIMENES

The largest stock of Achimenes we have ever grown is ready for the growing army of Achimenes fans over the U.S. This year we have imported several new kinds from Holland and India, and have developed a special parcel post pack involving double insulation which has given excellent results to date. This makes possible the shipment of the tiny, tender tubercles during the winter and spring months when they are often subject to cold weather damage when handled by old time methods.

The Achimenes is a sister of the NAEDELIA, GLOXINIA, AFRICAN VIOLET, etc., and grows well under ordinary conditions of the shade garden, when given protection from hot sun, cold, and high wind. They are best handled as basket, pot or box plants, and are seldom planted in the ground except in the deep South. The tubers are small like peas or tiny pine cones, and are grown five or six in a five or six inch pot. There are shades of pure white, lavender mauve, rose and blue to salmon rose and rich purple, besides a number of handsome rosy-lavender types whose main interest and distinction are the variations in foliage.

Nice mixture of varieties, $1.00 doz. Choice sorts mixed, $1.50 doz. New and rare varieties, $2.50 doz. ROYAL PURPLE (Purple King), VIVID, cerise-lake, MME. GEHEUNE (Grandiflora), GALATEA (early blue) and LOVELINESS, medium-late small lavender-purple, $1.00 per doz. VENUSTA, semi-double rich purple type, PULCHELLA, tiny red, late-flowering, ANDERSONI, twilight blue, LITTLE BEAUTY, salmon rose, MADUNA, rose-lavender with handsome bronzy foliage, $1.50 doz. MARGARITA, pure white, and DAINTY QUEEN, white with lavender dot centers, $2.50 per doz. The following at 50¢ each: LONGIFLORA MAJOR (Magnificum); ATROPURPUREA, VERSCHALFFELTII, ESCHERIANA, A. SCHEERI; CRIMSON GLOW, PINK BEAUTY, CATLEYEA, DENTONIA, A. TUBIFLORA, MASTER INGRAMI, MME. GEORGES (Ernst Benary), Special: Shades of Blue, $1.50 per doz.

HEDYCHUM CORONARIUM, "white ginger" or butterfly lily, $1.00; H. FLAVUM, "yellow ginger", $1.00 each, COSTUS SPECIOSUS, "crepe ginger", spiral flag, ruffled white flowers on terminal red cones, $2.00 each. COSTUS IGNEUS, orange-pink flowers on dark green cones, spiral foliage on four-foot canes, $1.00 each. These are showy plants for tropical effects. H. CORONARIUM is half hardy in lower South where ground does not freeze hard. (Atlanta, etc.) ALPINIA SPECIOSA (NUTANS) "Pink Porcelain Ginger" or Shell Lily, $1.00 each. ALPINIA FORMOSANA, semi-dwarf type, used as border, $1.00 each. For Hedychiums, Costus and Alpinia see page 88, "Hawaiian Flowers", by Kong & Tuck.

FANCY LEAVED CALADIUMS

These are one of our great favorites and special offerings. We have known, grown and loved the fancy-leaved caladiums for 20 years.

Hayward Caladium Mixture, our own home grown selection of strong growing, varied easy and colorful sorts for the beginner, $3.50 per doz. For those desiring something specially made up for bright colors and showy types, we offer this year for the first time the Bear Hollow Caladium Farm's All-Brite Florist's Mixture, $3.50 per doz. Especially intended for pot plant culture this mixture will contain various forms too delicate for general yard planting.

CALADIUM (Argyrites) HUMBOLDTII dwarf silvery-white and green mottled and spotted variety, one of the choicest pot plant subjects for summer, a rare and dainty treasure. A few small bulbs, $2.50 each. Small living plants in summer, packed in damp moss, $1.00 each.

Arrow and Lance Caladiums: We have a few varieties available in modest quantities, which will not last the season. SEA SHELL, creamy rose and purple-green shades in marbled designs, $1.50 each. E. O. ORPET (T. L. Mead, originator), the first of the showy red caladiums with the narrow pointed leaves, a few bulbs only, small size, $2.50 each. PAULA LIETZ, $2.50 each.

New Arrow & Lance Caladiums, mostly dwarf types, many with red, crimson, rose-pink markings, $3.00 each, five for $10.00, our selection. Our stock of these is still too low to sell by separate varieties. White Arrow & Lance caladiums (green borders), $3.00 each. One to a customer. We hope to increase the stock of these sensational novelties sufficiently next season to be able to reduce prices. As it is, specialists in some of these types are asking prohibitive prices at this time wholesale. It will take several seasons to work up quantity supplies. The bulbs of these new kinds are smaller than most caladiums, and slower in growth. These caladiums received a special Vote of Commendation from the judges of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society in 1949 as submitted by us. See p. 14, 1950 Yearbook, M.H.S.

NAMED VARIETIES of standard Fancy Leaved Caladiums, -- JOHN PEED, MRS. W. B. HALDEMAN, MRS. F. SANDER, CANDIDUM, EDITH MEAD, TRIOMFHE DE L'EXPOSITION, SPANISH FLAG, PINK BEAUTY, MACAHYBA, ITACAPUS, CLEO, 50¢ each.
